* INSTRUCTION TIME: The final proposed schedule provides total instructional hours: Elementary = 915.2, Middle = 935.2, High = 1009.6 (minus any non-instructional time such as non-academic assemblies). Minimum instructional hours for students, by state requirements, are 900 for elementary school, 900 for middle school (4J's standard is 945, midway to high school), and 990 for high school. Maximum instructional hours for teachers, by teacher union contract, are 920 for elementary school, 945 for middle school, and 1012 for high school.

* NON-INSTRUCTIONAL TIME: Instructional time is less than the length of the day because students have time out of class for recess, lunch, passing periods and breaks. Currently schools have different amounts of non-instructional time during the day. Some schools show a range of time because they have longer recess and lunch (the higher number of minutes) for younger grades. The new schedule provides for a certain amount of non-instructional minutes per day. Each school will decide how to schedule this time during the school day. For example, an elementary school might schedule its 60 minutes as a 30-minute lunch/recess and two 15-minute recesses, or as a 40-minute lunch/recess and one 20-minute recess.

* EXTRA NO-SCHOOL DAYS: Current schedules include school-specific no-school days for parent conferences, school improvement, etc. Starting in 2018–19 all schools at each level will have the same calendar.

FIRST DRAFT SCHEDULE

SECOND DRAFT SCHEDULE

FINAL PROPOSED SCHEDULE

* RED shows a change from First Draft Schedule to Second Draft Schedule, or from Second Draft Schedule to Final Proposed Schedule.
* INSTRUCTIONAL TIME: The final proposed schedule provides total instructional hours of 915.2 for elementary, 935.2 for middle, and 1009.6 for high school (minus any non-instructional time such as non-academic field trips and assemblies).
Minimum instructional hours for students, by state requirements, are 900 for elementary school, 900 for middle school (4J's standard is 945, midway to high school), and 990 for high school.
Maximum instructional hours for teachers, by teacher union contract, are 920 for elementary school, 945 for middle school, and 1012 for high school.

* NON-INSTRUCTIONAL TIME: Instructional time is less than the length of the day because students have time out of class for recess, lunch, passing periods, etc. Currently schools have different amounts of non-instructional time during the day. Some schools show a range of time because they have longer recess and lunch (the higher number of minutes) for younger grades. The draft schedule provides for a certain amount of non-instructional time per day. Each school will decide how to schedule this time during the school day. For example, an elementary school might schedule its 60 minutes as a 30-minute lunch/recess and two 15-minute recesses, or as a 45-minute lunch/recess and one 15-minute recess.

* EXTRA NO-SCHOOL DAYS: Current school schedules include school-specific no-school days for parent conferences, school improvement, etc. Starting in 2018-19 all schools at each level will have the same calendar.
