Although the district cannot commit to keeping a formal complaint of Title IX Sexual Harassment confidential because of the district’s obligation to investigate the formal complaint, the district will not share information concerning the formal complaint beyond those who have a right or need to know.

Please contact Dr. Morgan Christensen at titleixcoordinator@4j.lane.edu if you have any questions regarding the process for filing or investigating complaints of Title IX Sexual Harassment.

Retaliation

Neither the district nor any other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or the district’s Title IX policies or procedures, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this part. Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination, including charges against an individual for code of conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment, but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or formal complaint of sexual harassment, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or the district’s Title IX policies or procedures, constitutes retaliation. The district offers a Title IX Informal Resolution process to resolve allegations of Title IX Sexual Harassment other than those involving an allegation of harassment of a student by an employee.
